

STAUNTON'S BILL TO PUNISH THE GERMANS

Senator Wants No Trade Or Truck With the German People.

STORES THAT SELL

German Goods to Be Designated—Difference of Opinion Among Senators.

Quebec, April 20.—"Shall Canada buy German made goods in future? Dozens of thousands of Canadians have the feeling that they will never again purchase an article made in Germany."

Senator Lynch-Staunton has introduced a bill to the Senate to amend the Criminal Code so that "every person who knowingly sells in goods, wares or merchandise which are in whole or part the growth, production or manufacture of the enemy shall display in letters legible over every outside entrance to his premises the word 'enemy' and shall print the word 'enemy' in all his advertisements and stationery. Successive advertising was given that afternoon.

The penalties proposed are six months imprisonment or $500 fine or both. The bill was applied to goods in stock at the time of the passing of the Act. Senator Lynch-Staunton said that the bill would be dealt with by that house.

He proposed to bring the bill to the final stage so that thousands of Canadian business houses could criticise his party, Mr. Johnston, to the effect that not a single Conservative member in the house had seen any fighting in France.

"I think it is decidedly up to the Conservative member to withdraw at the front line," he said.

After adding that he did not propose to sit in the House and listen to one member in his party criticise his party, he proceeded: "It is not becoming for one soldier to speak of another soldier who has been fighting on the other side of the House is now speaking."

He demanded a retraction.

Capt. John W. M. P.P. was in the chair at the time, and he ruled that Capt. Magdaliner was entitled to his first right of way.

After a short debate, Capt. Johnston's first effort in that direction was too qualified to suit the Northern, and he demanded, and eventually got, a complete withdrawal of the statement.

Mr. McLean criticised the U.P.O.F. for not supporting the bill.

The bill was perfectly understood in his presentation of timber receipts in ordinary revenues, and the present was entirely wrong in his manner of accounting.

Mr. McLean maintained that the bill was perfectly understood in his presentation of timber receipts in ordinary revenues, and the present was entirely wrong in his manner of accounting.

Mr. Johnston's addition contained a vigorous protest against the policy of the Ontario Legislature in the development of water powers and improved roadways.

"Eastern Ontario is not a good place to live in," he said, "but I am not so bad as to be taken from the table of the western counties. I am eastern Ontario has not had just as good as the industries of this Province should centre around Toronto and Hamilton."

Mr. Johnston continued that the Hydro Commission had been fighting various interests, and the Federal Government, as well, had not done what was expected of them.

He believed that the Hydro Commission should be punished.

He proposed that this bill the small amount should be heard before it was passed.

No English declined to give up William for trial, but Holland has declined to give up the men he has been held by him.

He was not in a position to do so.

He was not a member of the U.P.O.F.

The other talents will include Grace Miller, in imitation of the famous Lillian Russell, the boy soprano. The show will be a combination of one and two-reel features, turning off with the Fox film, "The Fox Hunt," a treat for children. The admission will be ten cents and no war tax.

Music AND Drama

What promises to be the best amateur theatrical ever staged in Hamilton will be offered at the Grand tomorrow night and Saturday.

Friday and Saturday nights, when the Tigers will stage their annual minstrel show, it will be the first appearance of the Bengalis and their friends as entertainers since, two or three days, and one has only witnessed the show to realize what a magnificent show it is going to be. There will be eight big bits of minstrel part, and the sale of seats has been equal to that for any previous entertainment staged in the city.

The opening evening will represent the days of the pirates with merry sailors singing and dancing, and some real wild men of Borneo as pirates. It is a picture that is sure to be a pleasant diversion from the old-time minstrel half-circle. During the show, the Bengalis, Mr. and Mrs. Leitch will do a dancing specialty that promises to be one of the big bits of the show and that will isolate them as a class.

The men will, of course, cut up their usual mimic antics and their jokes are of a local nature, but the Bengalis, as a part, will come eight acts, each of which will have a special stage setting.

The Bengalis are to introduce a heavy of Hamilton's most beautiful young ladies, and the Melody Girls, who are to be introduced by several of the ladies, is another feature which promises to please the audience.

W. Steele, who is directing the performance, will be seen in a riot of fun in the way of a man who is singing and with A. C. Garrett. Although the first rehearsal will not be held until to-morrow afternoon, the artists are about as near completion as possible.

The big show promises to be as big a bit as any of the professional musical shows, and it is an exceptionally big demand for seats, and it looks as though an extra performance will have to be staged on Saturday afternoon.

PICTURE TEACHERS LESSON

Some stars and their film stars find their way into "The Picture Teacher," the big and powerful Griffith's drama which is creating a future at Lowe's this week. It is a picture of the life, this screen drama of the life histories of the kind of people everybody has seen as "fantastic" because of their faith and steadfastness which will be sure of its appeal to every thinking person.

Love, life, death, art, life, death, and bubbling humor make up the strands of the complex story thread that is woven into a fabric of profound truth which touches and points at every human heart. It had been called a "potential play of to-day," and it is a picture that promises to be a lasting attraction which has ever featured the screen bill of this progressive theatre.

Next week comes a picture of which much has been heard by screen fans, and which they will be able to enjoy in full. It is "The Picture Teacher," a highly and much-heralded Mack Sennett comedy sensation. Down on the farm, the picture is to evoke more laughs to the minute than any screen success of many months.

Every means that have been contrived to make the picture of which picture fans have been brought into play, and the things which no one ever thought possible are being done.

The manner in which the birds and beasts of the farm have been trained to take part in the scenes is astonishing in the extreme. "Their work is such as to amaze the spectators."

Camden, N. J., April 21.—Jimmy Wilde, of England, heavyweight champion of the world, and Battling Murray, the Philadelphia boxer, will meet in a 15-round bout at the arena which is being staged under the auspices of the Camden Sportmen's Club.

The heroine of the drama is most convincingly depicted by Claire Adams, who is the most beautiful woman on the screen.

Here is a dramatic production that is manifestly designed to hold the audience spellbound on the stage.

It requires an expansiveness of the cramped quarters of the largest stage which is not to be found in any other theatre.

It requires a masterful style by beautiful Vienna Hennig. Miss Hennig lends the dignity and impressiveness to the picture which is lacking in the other parts of the story.

It requires a skillful handling of the scenes which are to be presented.
